

TheCatholicSpirit.com

Official Newspaper of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis

Joe's Jots

Notre Dame football's 'Four Horsemen' ride again

By Joe Towalski

Tuesday, 25 November 2008

A member of Pax Christi in Eden Prairie is getting good reviews for his recently released book "Loyal Sons: The Story of The Four Horsemen and Notre Dame Football's 1924 Champions."

Author Jim Lefebvre's work is the first book-length treatment of the team that won the school's first national championship, led by a backfield that sportswriting legend Grantland Rice nicknamed "The Four Horsemen."

The book also recounts the deep-seated anti-Catholicism of the times, as well as how the team helped to change such attitudes and become a source of pride for American Catholics.

"Loyal Sons" can be ordered here at TheCatholicSpirit.com (see left), as well as directly from the distributor, ACTA Publications at www.actasports.com or (800) 397-2282.